

Dear Husband,

I send you a communication from William C. Procter. Neither James nor I like to take the responsibility of publishing it. Please decide, and answer promptly.

I do love you, and thank you heartily for your kind letter. But I am obliged to write in great haste.
Amelia has returned, and is very sick. I hope she will die.

Yrs most affectionately, Maria.

I have carefully examined all the Tribunes in both your drawers, but can not find the article on your Texan pamphlet.
